

NEW FULL TIME POLICE OFFICERS

The New Buffalo Police Department is glad to announce the addition of two new patrol officers to the department.

Officer David Burrow was sworn in by Deputy Clerk Christin Rice on March 18, 2015. Officer Burrow was a member of the Laramie County Sherriff's Department in Cheyenne, Wyoming, for seven years. He attended the Wyoming Law Enforcement Academy in Douglas, Wyoming. His training as a Drug Recognition Expert through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration,... a certified Field Training Officer and Bicycle Patrol training will be a great asset to our department. Officer Burrow grew up in Gobles, Michigan.

Officer David Hockenhull has been a part time officer in New Buffalo since November, 2013. He became a full time officer on March 26, 2015. Officer Hockenhull attended the Kalamazoo Law Enforcement Training Center Academy in Kalamazoo, Michigan. He has been a former member of the Detroit and South Bend Police Departments, as well as a security officer at Four Winds Casino. He has been actively patrolling our community for more than a year.

We welcome both officers to our team and look forward to their future contributions and involvement in our community.
